

PICTURE OF A PARALLEL REALITY - ANGEL VALLEY IN THE NEW PARADIGM

Imagine strolling down the path at Angel Valley breathing in deep, slow breaths of pure mountain air. As the air rushes through your nostrils and fills up your lungs, you feel it cleansing your body. Above you, the sun beams down from a cloudless blue sky, warming your shoulders and face, allowing you to melt into a state of relaxation.

As you glance around, you can't help but feel a huge smile consume your face. You find yourself surrounded by a group of joyous and generous people who have come together to help dream into existence a beautiful now. Each individual emanates love and positive energy, which soaks into you and ripples out to everyone else. You can feel your heart begin to open even wider. With each deep breath you feel more love flowing through you.

All who join together in this perfect moment are kindred spirits. They have made the choice to consciously co-create a new paradigm. As they work together, it is obvious that everyone is living purely from their hearts. They are all here because being a part of this community brings them pure joy.

They have all come to Angel Valley to be a part of this Cosmic Soul Family feeling connected to this beautiful place, with its gently flowing hills, red rocks, bubbling creek, and powerful energies. Each and every person felt the need to be here not only in their mind, but in their heart and body as well. There was a longing – a pulling – towards Angel Valley. They have all made the decision to surrender entirely to their higher selves and are allowing themselves to be lead down the path they were meant to follow.

As more people are drawn towards Angel Valley, their hearts blossom open like the petals of a flower allowing sunshine to flood into it. By living their passion, each new person fits in perfectly with the community. Each individual knows the part they contribute and happily does it, as it is what they love to do.

There is only positive, expanding energy flowing amongst the people. Everyone is entirely open and connected with everyone else. All the people bathe each other with love and encouragement to be their true, natural self. As the hearts of their family members are open and connected, they begin to experience the miracles that are occurring all around them. Together they are dreaming a new world into being.
